

Creative Confrontation

We don't always agree with everyone out there in the world.

Some of the time, we don't even agree with ourselves. We are going to dive into ways that creative confrontation can help develop the heart inside our song.

Rhythm of the Heart

Yours beats over a hundred thousand times a day. Rhythm is all around us. We'll explore groove, flow, swing, and other ways to help add dynamics, emotion and feel to all of your songs.

Water The Seeds

A whole song doesn't have to come out in one session. Some great songs develop over months, years even. Let's take another look at some of your new or older ideas and add a little water.

Listening to the Voice

To find "our" voice...we have to do more than sing out loud. We have to listen closely to the inside voice and face it fearlessly. Singing, Sharing, growing.
